

Week 13 Predictions

Week 13 is here and there are some huge match-ups that are likely going to affect the outcome of the playoffs.

We will look at the quickfire key Match-ups and score predictions as the playoff race heats up.

Remember there are games on Thursday, Friday, as well as Sunday due to thanksgiving, and to everyone reading this Happy thanksgiving!!!!!!

Bears (4-7) @ (10-1) Lions

Key Match-up - Bears defence Vs Lions offense. As with most weeks the Bears defence have to stop this hugely impressive offence. The Lions offence seem to be able to constantly score whenever they want.

Score Prediction - Bears 20-34 Lions

Giants (2-9) @ (4-7) Cowboys

Key Match-up - DeVito Vs Rush - whichever quarterback has the better game is going to in this matchup for their side. Rush looked better last week he will have to continue that.

Score Prediction - Giants 17-21 Cowboys

Dolphins (5-6) @ (8-3) Packers

Key Match-up - The receiving group for both sides. This one seems easy, both sides have good receiving groups and the quarterbacks are finding them and winning games, this could be an explosive game to watch.

Score Prediction - Dolphins 30-34 Packers

Raiders (2-9) @ (10-1) Chiefs

Key Match-up - Crosby Vs Mahomes, the last few seasons when Mahomes is mic'ed up it is clear he does not like Crosby on the field, if Crosby can try and rattle him again it could help, however it would have to be serious rattling for the Raiders to stand any chance.

Score Prediction - Raiders 10-24 Chiefs

Chargers (7-4) @ (6-5) Falcons

Key Match-up - Edwards Vs Ellis and Landman. With JK Dobbins out, Edwards has to run the ball well for the Chargers. To stop him brings the Falcons into play so the linebackers for the Falcons become vital to this in what should be a close game.

Score Prediction - Chargers 24-21 Falcons

Steelers (8-3) @ (4-7) Bengals

Key Match-up - Porter Jr Vs Chase. Chase is currently the hottest wide receiver in the game, Porter will have to stop Chase getting serious yards at home. There are other match-ups for this one but slowing Chase down gives the Steelers the best chance of victory. This will be another close one.

Score Prediction - Steelers 23-27 Bengals

Cardinals (6-5) @ (9-2) Vikings

Key Match-up - McBride Vs Smith. Harrison Smith is one of the best safeties in the game, and criminally underrated, he has the job of stopping McBride in this one who not only is a huge threat, but Kyler's main target. This also should be a good close Match-up.

Score Prediction - Cardinals 24-27 Vikings

Colts (5-7) @ (3-9) Patriots

Key Match-up - Richardson Vs Maye. Both young quarterbacks are showing some good bits on the field this season, Richardson has had his struggles as well as Maye, but their explosiveness is what makes this a good watch.

Score Prediction - Colts 30-20 Patriots

Seahawks (6-5) @ (3-8) Jets

Key Match-up - Smith-Njigba Vs Sauce. JSN is absolutely flying, Sauce and Reed will have to slow him down. JSN has emerged as Smith's favourite target in recent weeks and is becoming very reliable in yards.

Score Prediction - Seahawks 27-17 Jets

Titans (3-9) @ (7-5) Commanders

Key Match-up - Simmons Vs Daniels. Simmons has got to get to Daniels and stop him from extending the plays, he also has to stop him from rushing especially with the injuries to Washington's running backs.

Score Prediction - Titans 21-31 Commanders

Texans (7-5) @ (2-9) Jaguars

Key Match-up - Texans offensive line Vs Jags defensive line. The Texans on-line has been awful recently and it has killed Stroud's production, they go against a tough d-line and the Jags will be relishing this Match-up. The Texans need a win to get their season back on track.

Score Prediction - Texans 24-17 Jaguars

Rams (5-6) @ (4-7) Saints

Key Match-up - Stafford Vs Saints defensive line. If Stafford can stay upright in this one, his receivers could have a field day. If the Saints d-line can get to him and often he may not have the time to find those receivers.

Score Prediction - Rams 27-20 Saints

Bucs (5-6) @ (3-8) Panthers

Key Match-up - Vea and Kancey Vs Young. For the Panthers to win this one they have to keep pace with the Bucs offence, Young has impressed massively the last few weeks and if he can continue this the Bucs will need their big two wrecking crew to disrupt once again.

Score Prediction - Bucs 28-21 Panthers

Eagles (9-2) @ (8-4) Ravens

Key Match-up - This is the battle of the best right now in Saquon Vs Henry. Both running backs are elite, and are playing some of their best football. Both are trying to help lead their team to the playoffs as well. What a Match-up at this stage of the season!! This will be awesome!!!

Score Prediction - Eagles 24-23 Ravens

49ers (5-6) @ (9-2) Bills

Key Match-up - Jennings Vs Douglas. This may seem strange as Jennings does line up all over the offence, however Purdy and Allen go to Jennings often in big play scenarios.

Douglas will likely be matching up in those plays which could make for an interesting battle.
Score Prediction - 49ers 24-30 Bills

Browns (3-8) @ (7-5) Broncos

Key Match-up - Garrett Vs Nix. Nix has looked comfortable in the NFL, he now goes up against one of the very best defensive linemen in Myles Garrett. If Nix can avoid Garrett's explosive plays the Broncos will be able to get through this even with Winston slinging the ball around.

Score Prediction - Brown 24-27 Bronces

Biggest Scoring Game

Dolphins Packers is the bet on this one. Both offences are playing some good football. Both quarterbacks are moving the ball well so it looks on paper one that could be quite high scoring.

Best Match to Watch

This one seems a fairly easy pick, when I saw the Eagles @ Ravens fixture it jumped out as the game to watch. Two excellent teams. Two of the hottest players in the NFL with Saquon Vs Henry, it is likely to be a huge battle and one you can really enjoy.
