

Week 14 Predictions

Packers (9-3) @ (11-1) Lions

Key Match-ups : Reed Vs St Brown - I love this match up, both the game and two of the best young wide receivers going at it. Both of these two are key to their side offence as they take attention away from others as well. I think whichever receiver has the most impact in this one will be crucial.

Score Prediction : Packers 28-30 Lions

Jaguars (2-10) @ (3-9) Titans

Key Match-ups : Jones Vs Levis - This game could be a shoot out. Both these young quarterbacks will be looking to prove they can play in the NFL, with Lawrence out it gives Jones a chance to audition for teams looking for a quarterback for next season. Although Levis has had moments there are still question marks over him and with both sides having early picks next season they will want to prove they are worth keeping.

Score Prediction : Jaguars 24-27 Titans

Jets (3-9) @ (5-7) Dolphins

Key Match-ups : Sauce Vs Hill - this Match-up looks good on paper but both have not played to their high standards so far this year, a divisional match-up may give them two the perfect opportunity to show what they are made of.

Score Prediction : Jets 18-24 Dolphins.

Falcons (6-6) @ (10-2) Vikings

Key Match-ups : Terrell Vs Jefferson - One of the best corners Vs one of the best receivers. This should be a great battle and could be the key for this game.

Score Prediction : Falcons 19-22 Vikings

Saints (4-8) @ (2-10) Giants

Key Match-ups : Kamara Vs Tracy - this game has the makings of a run first game. Both these running backs have led their team well this year. To get the win in this one one of these will have a big game.

Score Prediction : Saints 19-18 Giants

Panthers (3-9) @ (10-2) Eagles

Key Match-ups : Young Vs Eagles secondary - yet again Bryce is the Panthers key player, he's been playing really well recently and proving his worth with 1st overall pick. He has a tough game against the Eagles. For the Panthers to get a win Bryce will need to play well and keep it from that secondary. I think this could be a shoot out.

Score Prediction : Panthers 29-37 Eagles

Browns (3-8) @ (9-3) Steelers

Key Match-ups : Ward Vs Pickens - I like this Match-up, both playing well, Pickens mainly lines up on the outside and it is likely Ward follows him. This battle could be key for the win if Ward can keep Pickens quiet the Browns could get another sneaky win.

Score Prediction : Browns 21-24 Steelers

Raiders (2-10) @ (6-6) Bucs

Key Match-ups : Raiders defensive line Vs Irving - Irving is electric right now, he has taken over as lead back in Tampa. He has been one of the best offensive finds of the draft. If the Raiders allow him to move the ball like he has the last few weeks they could be in a heap of trouble.

Score Prediction : Raiders 13-27 Bucs

Seahawks (7-5) @ (6-6) Cardinals

Key Match-ups : JSN Vs Williams (nickel corner) - JSN has been the Seahawks go to, he mainly plays in the slot so nickel Williams has his work cut out in this game if Smith continues to look for JSN and he carries on his good form.

Score Prediction : Seahawks 24-21 Cardinals

Bills (10-2) @ (6-6) Rams

Key Match-ups : Cook Vs Williams - What a game and match-up at this stage in the season, both offences are great to watch. The running back battle is key here, when these backs have good games it opens the offence up for the side, this is going to be key in this game to get space for the other offensive player to get free.

Score Prediction : Bills 27-24 Rams

Bears(4-8) @ (5-7) 49ers

Key Match-ups : Bears defensive line Vs Guerendo - The San Fran running backs are key to the offense, without CMC, Mitchell or Mason, Guerendo becomes the key man to get the offense going, it's the rookies first start of the year and he will need to set the tone for the offence.

Score Prediction : Bears 20-23 49ers

Chargers (8-4) @ (11-1) Chiefs

Key Match-ups : Herbert Vs Mahomes - I love this battle twice a year, two of my favourites quarterbacks to watch going to battle. The Chargers defence is playing well, so is the Chiefs so the quarterbacks are going to need to play well to get their side a win.
Score Prediction : Charger 24-21 Chiefs

Bengals (4-8) @ (5-7) Cowboys

Key Match-ups : Chase Vs Diggs - Chase is on fire at the moment, he is finding yards all over the field. Diggs will likely be the one to follow him and will need to slow him down leaving Bland to stop Higgins. These matchups on paper look like a really interesting prospect.

Score Prediction : Bengals 27-20 Cowboys

Teams on a Bye

Broncos, Colts, Patriots, Commanders, Ravens, Texans

Best Game to Watch

This week's top spot goes to the Seahawks Vs Cardinals game, the two are at the top of NFC West, the Seahawks will hope to maintain their place at the top, whereas the Cardinals will want the win to take them back on level records. It makes for an interesting battle.

Potential Biggest Points Scoring Game

The Packers Vs Lions or Bills Vs Rams seems like the obvious picks due to all the stars on offence, but I am going with a slightly wildcard pick and going to say the Panthers Vs Eagles will be, it seems odd, but the recent form of the Panthers gives them hope for the future and I think they will continue it. The Eagles will continue in their fashion making this a potential shootout.
